Cycle's of Faith

22nd Sunday in Ordinary Time

Although Jews, Christians, and Muslims share a monotheistic faith, that is, a belief in the oneness of God, there is much that is vastly different among the three religions. A common expression used by many Arab Muslims (which has already been subsumed into English) is inshallah a contraction of the Arabic words "in sha' Allah" meaning "if God wills it." The expression holds within itself the attitude that things will unfold because God permits them to happen. "We will see each other tomorrow, inshallah" that is, God willing. There is a kind of a sense of fate in this attitude. Human action is ultimately dependent on divine permission.

The Gospel today takes a different approach. Jesus instructs his disciples that whoever would follow after him must "take up his cross, and follow me." He continues, "For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will find it. What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life?" The disciple actively chooses the suffering that is part of human existence and seeks out the will of God in his or her life. By seeking first what is right (i.e., the will of God), the disciple finds true happiness, which eludes those who seek such happiness directly in trying to gain the whole world.

Christianity has always been an active religion. We believe that we cooperate with God's grace in performing God's will. Christians do not shrink from promoting the common good and moving forward as part of their faith. When we act in the social sphere we do so believing that God has placed us on this earth with a purpose, that each person must discern God's will in his or her own life. That gift of vocation, whatever it may be for each individual, is lived out in the community of faith for the building up of God's kingdom.

"What profit would there be for one to gain the whole world and forfeit his life? Or what can one give in exchange for his life? For the Son of Man will come with his angels in his Father's glory, and then he will repay all according to his conduct." - Mt 16:26-27

Financial Report for the 2010-2011 Fiscal Year

The Seven Dolores Parish 2010-2011 Fiscal Year End Report is available on the back table of church and the table in the gathering area. It may be a surprise to see that our checking account is in the "red" so much. For the past three years income has not kept up with expenses. We were short around $30,000 for this fiscal year ($32,000 last year and $54,000 for 2008-2009). It is a good sum of money to be sure, but when divided by the 900 families registered by the 52 Sunday's of the year that comes out to less than $1. additional per Sunday per family (or $46,800 per year).

Planning Ahead

The Knights of Columbus extend a sincere invitation for everyone to come and enjoy a delicious Breakfast on Sunday, September 11. Their breakfast fundraiser will be held in Seven Dolores' parish center from 8:30am - 12:30pm.

The Children's Home impacts hundreds of trouble youth each year by providing a safe place to live, attend school and learn basic life skills. Your participation in this benefit event will have a positive effect on their lives. To register or learn more, visit www.ccstcloud.org/wobegonride or call Chuck Rieland at 763.571.9661 or 320.256.7148 (weekends).
