Baptism of the Lord

A lot of times, as people grow up, they have a role that they play as part of their life. It's easy to recall some of the names that were used to describe certain folks in school: the class clown, the teacher's pet, the good girl, the "bad" girl, the bully, the class nerd, etc. For good or ill, each of these persons was thought of as just a little bit out of the norm, and so the rest of the class gave them an identity (or maybe they took it on themselves). When you go to a class reunion ten or twenty-five years later, the temptation is to view that person in the same light, even though they may have turned out very different. That happened recently, in which a person who was not exactly a stellar student ended up becoming a very successful businessman and has now retired fully ten years before anyone else in the class is even approaching standard retirement age.

In the Gospel today, Jesus is revealed with an identity. He is the beloved Son, with whom the Father is well pleased. As Son of the Father he will redeem the world and reconcile humankind to its Creator, putting an end to the ancient enemy, death, through his own dying and rising. That message of salvation and the telling of the story of Jesus' life, miracles, teachings, and saving acts is recounted not just by Matthew, who wrote down today's Gospel, but by Christians throughout the ages in their preaching and their lives.

In promoting vocations this Sunday, the church invites us to be aware that the work of spreading the good news continues to this day. Jesus went from his baptism in the Jordan to call his disciples to follow him and to spread his message. That call continues in our day, for some as priests, deacons, or religious, and for the rest as people who share the story of Christ's love. ©2010 Liturgical Publications Inc

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him. John tried to prevent him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and yet you are coming to me?" Jesus said to him in reply, "Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us to fulfill all righteousness." Then he allowed him. -- Mt 3:13-15

SLIPPING

Oh no! Ice slipping is "not my cup of tea."
 My balance slipped from under my feet.
 Instead of attending Mass and visiting MMNH Residents, the capable nurse slid me to a couch.
Sliding into a car went emergency speed.
 Albany Hospital! Oh my gosh!
 My awkwardness really went public. How humiliating!
 My anticipated vacation free time slipped into the receiving care and help of many people.
 Another car trip?! What a lady of mercy.
 Did God slip me into St. Cloud to make a point?
 Much waiting ...
 meanwhile the Holy Spirit slipped into my thoughts, caught my attention and moved me then and now to say,
THANK YOU THANK YOU!
 Sincerely, Sister Alice Imdieke
 P.S. Not an elbow expression. It is HEART FELT Halos of Prayerful Gratitude.
