Most Holy Body & Blood of Christ

We sometimes go to extraordinary lengths to preserve life. Consider all the interventions that exist in a modern hospital's emergency room: from defibrillators to ventilators, from medicines that instantly negate the effects of an opiate overdose, to drugs that can break up a clot even as a stroke is underway. All of these intricate responses have been devised over and above the more ordinary actions of orange juice to revive a diabetic or caesarian section to deliver a baby in a compromised pregnancy. Because modern medicine can do so much, many of us in the developed world live with the expectation that our lives will just keep going on. The progress of medicine has made it inevitable that many families now confront the decision of when to let someone go—ending treatment, stopping medication, removing machines.

In this weekend's Gospel, Jesus promises that whoever eats his flesh and drinks his blood has eternal life. He tells the crowds that whoever eats the bread that comes down from heaven will live forever. The body and blood of Christ is real food and real drink. It is medicine for our body and soul. It is nourishment for our lives.

When Jesus makes the promise of life forever to those who eat his flesh and drink his blood, he is not talking about the kind of life support that we associate with hospital care. He is instead indicating that those who eat his body and drink his blood will live eternally because of the life that he gives. The medicine of the Eucharist heals us from sin and division, and makes us whole in Christ uniting us in one communion of love. So when we think about the extraordinary lengths we undertake to preserve life in the natural world, we may want to reconsider what we are willing to do in the spiritual world. Is the Eucharist part of our spiritual health care regularly?

"Just as the living Father sent me and I have life because of the Father, so also the one who feeds on me will have life because of me. This is the bread that came down from heaven. Unlike your ancestors who ate and still died, whoever eats this bread will live forever." - Jn 6:57-58

For those who like to return your books at the "last minute" remember the drawing will be held at 6:00pm.

We welcome St. Anthony parishioners to be involved with the bazaar in any way you would like - please let Joan Sand know if you would like a raffle book or could help in any other way.

HELP NEEDED, please call Edna at 845-2343

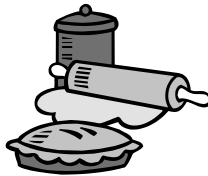

* Co-chair(s) for the parish center kitchen, please call Edna.

$10 Dinner Donation:

An envelope will be in the "Third Quarter"—July 3rd donation envelope set for the $10 bazaar dinner donation. Many area churches still ask for specific items to be donated for the bazaar dinner; this eliminates that method and allows the dinner chairladies to buy what is needed. Dinner donation envelopes will also be available in the gathering area. Please return your envelope as soon as you can—it makes the job of calling and reminding you by telephone that much easier! If you could help making phone calls (last week of July—first week of August) please call Sheela at 845-7082. We are in an ODD year, you will be asked to bring: A-L 1 cake (for the cake walk). M-Z 2 pies (for the dinner and pie & ice cream stand). Thank you!

Ordering your Pies & Cakes

The Albany Home Bakery and Amby's are now taking orders for your bazaar pies and cakes; and they will deliver them that Sunday morning too. Please call them or stop in at the store to pre-order. Thank you.

Food items, girl and boy toys, school supplies, pencil boxes, knick knacks, Avon & Mary Kay products, jewelry, kitchen supplies, craft and snack items, beanie babies, new and lightly used stuffed toys/animals, jams & jellies, etc. Items may be dropped off at "Amps" in Albany until July 30th. Congratulations to Kraft Foods

Catholic Charities of the Diocese of St. Cloud recently presented a Good Samaritan award to Kraft Foods Inc. of Albany. Good Samaritan Awards are given to individuals and organizations whose actions invoke the spirit of the biblical Good Samaritan – helping those in need with no reward expected.

Kraft Foods, Inc in Albany has been a consistent supporter of Catholic Charities Senior Dining, including the Meals on Wheels program, for nearly a decade. Not only does the company frequently donate dollars to support programs, they also donate food products and encourage employees to volunteer with the program.

Kraft's Dollars for Doers program directs funds to the programs its employees chose to volunteer with, so when employees deliver Meals on Wheels, the program receives a double benefit.

Congratulations to Kraft Foods!

Religious Ed. Coordinator for St. Anthony Parish

Marlene Ramacher has decided to step down as Religious Education Coordinator for St. Anthony Parish. I sincerely thank Marlene for being the coordinator for the last five years; she will continue to teach in the program. St. Anthony Parish is in need of a Religious Education Coordinator. The job is, for the most part, organizational (recruiting teachers, choosing textbooks, coordinating schedules and some activities with Seven Dolors Parish, keeping attendance, etc). There is a small stipend connected with the work.

The religious education of our young people is a vital ministry of the parish. It would be desirable, but not necessary, that the Coordinator be a member of the parish. Please contact Fr. Michael if you are interested in doing this important work.

Congratulations

Congratulations to Amanda Kramer & Daniel Varner who were married on Saturday. May God's Blessing be upon them as they begin their new life together.
