Ascension of the Lord

The Broadway musical, Spider-Man, Turn Off the Dark, is filled with high-flying aerial stunts that astounded audiences when they worked correctly. A significant part of the buzz surrounding the production, with its music by Bono and Edge, comes from the fact that the spectacular aerial displays don't always work. Actors have ended up being suspended in midair while stage crews hastened to untangle cables and pulleys. Sometimes, instead of Spiderman flying through the air with the greatest of ease, he ends up hanging helplessly above the stage.

From Icarus to NASA, humankind has imagined ways of leaving the earth. Watching birds soar aloft has provoked our imaginations into thinking that we too could one day lift ourselves to the heavens. The Scriptures for the feast of the Ascension leave us with the same vision as Jesus was lifted up in a cloud. Two men in white ask the apostles, "Men of Galilee, why are you standing there looking at the sky?"

Why, indeed? Jesus is no superhero, despite having his own rock musical, Jesus Christ Superstar. Looking to the heavens is not what this feast is about. As the Gospel for today reminds us, we are given a great commission: to make disciples of all nations, baptizing people and teaching them to observe what Jesus has commanded. We are not spectators like the audience at a Broadway musical, looking up to see what might happen. We are, instead, actors, taking our roles in the great story of salvation history. The commission Jesus gives in the Gospel is not only addressed to the eleven disciples who gathered with him on a mountain in Galilee. That commission is given to all of us, to go out into the world and to make disciples. Much of the language during this Easter season has an upward movement. Now Christ has commanded us to lift up others so they may be raised to new life in him. ©2011 Liturgical Publications Inc

"Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And behold, I am with you always, until the end of the age."

Bazaar News: Our Bazaar is Sunday, August 7, 2011

$10 Dinner Donation:

An envelope will be in the "Third Quarter"—July 3rd donation envelope set for the $10 bazaar dinner donation (you will be getting the envelopes in a few weeks). Many area churches still ask for specific items to be donated for the bazaar dinner; this eliminates that method and allows the dinner chairladies to buy what is needed. Dinner donation envelopes will also be available in the gathering area. Please return your envelope as soon as you can—it makes the job of reminding by telephone much easier!

We are in an ODD year, you will be asked to bring: A-L 1 cake (for the cake walk). M-Z 2 pies (for the dinner and pie & ice cream stand). Thank you!

THANK YOU

Thank you to Larry & Janice Mareck and Edna & Marvin Goebel for volunteering to chair the bazaar again this year. HOWEVER, they are still looking for co-chairs to help this year and chair next year. This would be a very good time to step forward and see what this is all about!

We are looking for workers -- Students completing 4th grade and older are encouraged to call Lisa at 845-4828. If you have new stuffed animals (or gently used) or small toys (like Happy Meal toys) the Children's stand could use those too! Please drop toys off at the parish office!

COUNTRY STORE:

Cash donations and miscellaneous items are now being accepted for the Country Store. Food items, girl and boy toys, school supplies, pencil boxes, knick knacks, Avon & Mary Kay products, jewelry, kitchen supplies, craft and snack items, beanie babies, new and lightly used stuffed toys/animals, wicker baskets-all sizes, jams & jellies, etc. Items may be dropped off at "Amps" in Albany until July 30th. Fresh garden produce & plants may be dropped off at the Country Store the morning of the bazaar. For more information please call the Country Store Chairperson—Kelly Spanier.

The family of George Hondl wishes to thank everyone who sent cards, said prayers or attended the wake or funeral. Special thank you to Fr. Michael Naughton, OSB, the church choir, cooks and servers.
