Cycle's of Faith

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

Recently, we attended the wake of a dear friend who had succumbed to cancer. She was in her early 70s, and had three grown children, all married. Over the years, the family had grown distant; the siblings were leading their lives with problems of their own and had little contact with their mother. Yet at the wake, they seemed to come together, realizing that everything they were, all of their traits and values and loves and struggles, were given to them by their mother. In her death, they came to know that they were given the greatest gift, the gift of life.

Today, we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ. We are called to reflect and renew our faith in the saving nourishment of the Eucharist. At the Last Supper, Jesus broke the bread and poured the wine, instructing his disciples not only to eat and drink in his memory, but to do so with others who would believe. All that he was, he wanted to give to the world. And as he foretold in the distribution of the loaves and fishes, each of us who receives him is to give him as well.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church defines the Eucharist this way: "The Eucharist is a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Father, a blessing by which the Church expresses her gratitude to God for all his benefits, for all that he has accomplished through creation, redemption, and sanctification. Eucharist means first of all 'thanksgiving'" (CCC 1360). As we approach the altar prepared to receive the body and blood of Christ, perhaps we would do well to remember the sacrifice he gave for us-his very life. In doing so, we realize that sense of thanksgiving that embodies the Eucharist.

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Then he took a cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, and they all drank from it. He said to them, "This is my blood of the covenant, which will be shed for many." - Mk 14:22-24

$10 DINNER DONATION:

An envelope is in your Sunday donation envelope set (May 31) for the $10 bazaar dinner donation. Many area churches still ask for specific items to be donated for the bazaar; this eliminates that method and allows the dinner chairladies to buy what is needed. Dinner donation envelopes will also be available in the gathering area. Please return your envelope as soon as you can (we hope to eliminate the door-to-door collecting process). We are in an ODD year, so please bring: A-L 1 cake M-Z 2 pies.

RAFFLE CHANCEBOOKS ARE READY!

Raffle chancebooks are ready and in the gathering area. Additional books can be picked up at the parish office, Apollo Ins, or the Credit Union.

We welcome St. Anthony parishioners to be involved with the bazaar in any way you would like - please let Joan Sand know if you would like a raffle book or could help in any other way!

The RAFFLE is the main money maker for the bazaar, please pick up your book. Your sold book may be dropped off at the parish office, put in the Sunday collection or on the day of the bazaar dropped off at the chancebook stand by 6:00pm. In order to comply with "gambling regulations" each ticket is consecutively numbered, the cover & label must remain on the book and ALL unsold books MUST be returned. To qualify for "most sold" prizes of $100, $75 and $50 -- those books must be returned by noon Fri, July 31. For those who like to return your books at the "last minute" remember the drawing will be held at 6:00pm.
